GREEK KEY STRIPE

Three-inch vertical bands printed in crisp Greek key design alternate with six-inch solid stripes. The majority of the palettes include lines of metallic ink as well. This innovative approach to a classic is twenty-first century and the tricolored patterns are quite refreshing; even bold. Among the six selections is soft seafoam with pristine white and mercury or deep industrial grey with white and slender bars of gold.

HIGHWIRE STRIPE

Calm, quiet and understated, with the look of fine woven cloth, this wallpaper has a pattern of narrow stripes a mere eighth inch to half an inch wide. The more slender of the vertical bands are embellished with tiny blocks in alternating colors. Six possibilities include off white with black and grey or denim blue with light blue and white.

LONG HILL

Stripes as thin as thread, increasing to an inch in width, create the vertical pattern on this wallpaper. Always a favorite, ever a classic, stripes can be incorporated into most any décor. This pattern in no exception and comes in five handsome color ways including cream with grey and tan or cream and white with both medium and dark blue.

INCENSE STRIPE

This versatile wallpaper has a neutral solid background with minimal texture and bands of color from thread-thin to nearly an inch in width. The open spaces are three inches wide and the stripes have an irregular finish that contributes a semblance of cloth. Palettes include white with denim blues and black or rich cream with coral and browns plus two more.

SURFACE STRIPE

Not for the faint of heart, here we have stripes in heroic proportions! Approaching seven-inches in width, this wallpaper pattern makes a major design statement installed vertically or horizontally. Add drama with stark black and white or enjoy Zen serenity with soft shades of aquamarine. Three more color ways are also available.

JAVA JOURNEY

This unique stripe has the captivating naïve appearance of hand-colored cloth; ikat, batik or tie-dye. The ethnic flavor of the pattern is enhanced by the rugged woven texture and the trio of merging colors. The vertical bands are slightly over an inch in width. Four selections include a neutral tan, grey and white combination or a sunny yellow with dove grey and white.

BOOTCUT STRIPE

As crisp and refreshing as a peppermint stick, this dual colored stripe is a winner. Slender bands of color about an inch wide brighten the white background. This versatile feel-good wallpaper could be used nearly anywhere, from kitchen or bath to child's room. In five palettes including spring grass green or buttercup yellow, each on white.

DONNINGTON

Elegance and tradition marry in this timeless damask design. The backdrop, formed by feathery acanthus leaves which intertwine and fan into bouquets, is intersected by pinstripes and half-inch bands of contrasting color. Select from four pleasing pastels such as the off white, cream, beige and taupe version or cream and beige with misty sage green.

3" WIDE STRIPE

Delightful or dramatic, cabana stripes always add excitement to interior décor. This wallpaper features three-inch stripes in alternating hues. Generally installed vertically, consider a bold horizontal statement wall with broad belts of color. Among the six palettes is white with soft neutral beige, soft aquamarine or perhaps metallic gold or silver each with white.

LOVERS LANE

This wallpaper, with slightly raised stripes, mimics a pretty fabric with bands in a variety of widths from a quarter to half an inch. The colors tend to be pleasingly mellow with vertical striations adding a modicum of texture. Several versions also have slender bars of metallic glimmer. Among the seven palettes is peach, coral, gold, and sage green with silver or beige, tan, shades of green and gold.

NORFOLK ROSE

In the romantic mode of floral wallpapers, this generous pattern boasts twelve-inch wide displays of multicolored garlands alternating with solid stripes. The classic garden genre is equally appropriate for a conservative traditional home or a charming cottage setting. The four pleasing color ways include a palette of cream with white, bright coral, yellow and shades of green.

TURNING TIDES

The sea rolls on and on to break against distant shores, creating a foaming frothy wall of water; or so it seems when you contemplate the graceful bands on this lovely wallpaper. The backdrop looks like fine textured fabric and the scrolling vertical design, three inches wide, resemble Asian artistry. Select from teal with molten silver, greige with charcoal brown or four additional color duos.

COZY UP STRIPE

The scale, colors and texture of this wallpaper combine to bring a sense of whimsy and joy or a calm quiet restraint to a room. The yarn-like rippled stripes run ceiling to floor in a mélange of either disparate or tonal colors. Take your pick of five versions which include serene beige, cream and white or celebratory yellow, green, turquoise and white.

HARMONY STRIPE

A warm mellow shade forms the backdrop for striped wallpaper whereon the colored bands are as slender as string to no greater than a quarter inch. The expansive field is pleasingly lined with several contrasting hues. Among the choices are red, brown and black or bright blue, aqua, and kiwi shown on a white field.

SANTA MARIA STRIPE

So very lovely; this wide stripe combines several classic elements to create marvelous wallpaper that marries past and present. Eight-inch bands in smooth solid shades are flanked with inch-wide Greek key designs and three-inch ribbons of damask foliage. The result is a large scale contemporary pattern presented in an array of tempting color ways. Choose kiwi or jonquil with white and shining silver plus three additional selections.

CHAIN STRIPE

Interlocking circles, ranging from less than one to more than two inches, appear to be suspended before a solid colored wall. The uncommon look suggests an oversize chain-link curtain; a contemporary interpretation of a retro decorating element. The six variations come in neat dual color combinations such as deep marine blue with mirrored silver or ebony with Midas gold.

HARPER STRIPE

A perennial favorite, stripes enliven a room with color and line. This example has lots of open space with touches of color achieved through the addition of slender bars half an inch wide or less. Bringing another interesting design element to the mix, some of the stripes are printed in metallic inks. Among the five selections: aqua, green and silver on white or gold, red, and black on beige.

DOWN THE LANE

An exciting gathering of vertical stripes, this trim pattern consists of pencil-thin lines, quarter-inch bands and broad four-inch strips of color. The tidy regimentation of the pattern is emphasized by the confident contrast of hues and the glimmer of metallic inks. This spirited contemporary wallpaper comes in five palettes: deep and medium blue with white and brass, plus burnt orange with cream, cocoa brown and gold among others.
